Pastor’s Corner

Happy Candlemas! No matter the day of the week, February 2 is always the feast of the Presentation of Jesus in the Temple. Forty days after birth, every Jewish family would bring their firstborn to the Temple for rituals of purification and presentation. So forty days after Christmas, Mary and Joseph travel from Bethlehem to Jerusalem to dedicate baby Jesus. Once in the Temple, the Holy Spirit enlightens the priest Simeon with the wisdom that this newborn is the promised Messiah. This is more than a sentimental moment. It is a moment rich with spiritual import. In fact, this is the penultimate story we hear about Jesus before he enters into the hidden years of regular life in Nazareth. After this Presentation (and Finding in the Temple), we don’t know anything about Jesus until the beginning of His public ministry and His baptism thirty years later. The Presentation marks the culmination of Incarnation and Nativity. For this reason, the Presentation traditionally ended the Christmas season.

The Presentation reveals two important historical and spiritual truths. First, it is the moment when God returns to the Temple. In the first reading the prophet Malachi says “I am sending my messenger to prepare the way before me; And suddenly there will come to the temple the LORD whom you seek.” This prophecy should rouse our curiosity. We usually think of the Temple as the place where God resides, where the presence of the Lord is found. But speaking hundreds of years before the birth of Jesus, Malachi says that there will come a time when the Lord will come to the Temple. The implication is clear: God had left the Temple. While this might seem strange to us, consider that every Jewish person would know that Malachi was referring to loss of the Ark of the Covenant. When the Babylonians destroyed the temple in 6th century BC, the Ark vanished. Even though the Temple was rebuilt, holy of holies was bereft of the presence of God in the Ark. When Jesus is presented in the Temple, it is the moment when the Lord once again returns to the Temple. Jesus is the new Ark. He is living presence of the Lord who is Emmanuel, God with His people. The moment of presentation is more than simply a sentimental moment of infant dedication, it is the first moment of God being present to His people forever. Never again can God’s presence be lost, for the Presence of the Lord is present in the child of promise.

Second, the Presentation is a moment of illumination. In the Gospel, when Simeon is enlightened with the knowledge of Jesus’ identity, he says: “Now, Master, you may let your servant go in peace, according to your word, for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you prepared in the sight of all the peoples: a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel.” Jesus is the light that will gather all nations together into God’s presence. Remember that, in the Temple, a sacred, seven candled Golden Lampstand always accompanied the Ark of the Covenant. The light from this Lampstand signified the presence of God and illumined the Holy of Holies. Just as Jesus is the fulfillment of the Ark, so too, Jesus embodies the reality symbolized in the Golden Lampstand.

Light as a symbol of Jesus’ special presence continues today in our Churches. Whenever you enter a Church, look to find the sanctuary candle which is often red in color. This red candle light signifies the presence of the Eucharist in the tabernacle. Simeon’s prophecy of the baby Jesus as the “light of revelation” is the reason why today is called “Candlemas.” Coincidentally this year 2020, February 2 falls on Sunday and so we bless candles at all our weekend liturgies. (We will use these candles for the St. Blaise throat blessings on Monday.)

On this Candlemas, we celebrate the definitive restoration of God’s radiant presence. This presence is a light which enlightens us both to see and be God’s light. When Simeon is enlightened, he shines with the prophetic radiance of his insight. So too, let us pray this week: Lord, help me see your light, so that I may be your light for others. Amen!

~ Fr. Michael

Events This Week

Our Lady of Lourdes Novena, February 3 – 11, Church Nave. The Novena preacher is Fr. Bart Hutcherson, O.P., of the Western Dominican Province Preaching Band. Masses will be offered weekdays and Saturdays at 8:00 am & 5:30 pm, and Sunday at 11:30 am & 5:30 pm. The Rosary will precede each Mass, and a blessing with the St. Jude relic is administered after Mass. Fr. Bart brings his deep love for the Word of God, and his deeply Catholic understanding of Sacred Scripture to bear on his Novena preaching. We’re pleased to welcome him back to the Shrine for these nine days of grace. Contact the Shrine of St. Jude at (415) 931-5919 or info@stjude-shrine.org.

Third Annual Retreat for Women:

“Your Mind as Sanctuary,” a retreat for women directed by Br. Matthew Wanner, O.P., Tuesday, February 4, 9:00 am – 3:00 pm, Parish Hall. Neither angels nor demons have access to the human mind, our inviolable sanctuary, our locked garden. Yet, as St. Gregory of Nyssa reminds us, this garden also has a vulnerable fountain that needs to be protected so that its purity may remain inviolate for the Bridegroom. Just how do we care for this sacred garden? How do we protect the pure well-spring of our fountain? Inner prayer cleanses troubled thoughts, but how often do we feel disoriented or bogged down on our path toward spiritual vibrancy? If you are wondering how to step beyond the curtain of your present condition in view of greater purity and deeper peace in Christ, then you will benefit from this retreat, specifically designed for women living in a fragmented and disoriented age. Seal the fountain, guard the garden.

Cost is $50.00, which includes light breakfast and boxed lunch by Boudin Sourdough Bread Co. Adoration and Confessions available. Contact Kathy Folan for more information: kathy@stdominics.org or call (415) 567-7824 ext. 111.

SECOND SPRING POTLUCK & FOOT CARE CLINIC, Wednesday, February 5, 11:00 am, Parish Hall. The first Second Spring get-together and potluck luncheon of 2020. In addition, Sister Judith Benkert, O.P., and Gloria Escalona, RN, will be holding a Foot Care Clinic at that time as well.

Hope you can join us on the 5th. Please call Helene at (415) 814-2730 to let us know what you might be able to bring for the potluck and if you would like an appointment for the Foot Care Clinic.

FIRST FRIDAY AFTERNOON ADORATION: Friday, February 7, 2:00 – 4:30 pm, Friar's Chapel. All are welcome to join us in prayer before the Lord every First Friday of the month. The afternoon First Friday Adoration is in the Friar's Chapel, located directly behind the main altar.

FIRST FRIDAY EVENING ADORATION: Friday, February 7, 8:00 pm to 12:00 Midnight, Lady Chapel. To become a volunteer guardian or submit a prayer request, email: AdoreHim@FirstFridayAdoration.com. Join us today!

MUSIC & LITURGY

CONCERT OF MEDIEVAL MUSIC. Tuesday, February 18, 7:30 pm, Church Nave. This captivating program explores the rich beginnings of song and polyphony in Europe: from the splendid chants of the Notre Dame in Paris or Las Huelgas monestary in Spain to the evolving songs and poetry of the Troubadours in France. Although the iconic organetto (medieval portative organ), was the most popular instrument across Europe for hundreds of years, it disappeared in the beginning of the 16th century, perhaps unable to advance in range and volume as other instruments of the time, but what was lost was precious: the organetto is a deeply expressive and subtle instrument with a uniquely beautiful timbre. Soprano Anne-Kathryn Olsen and celebrated organetto virtuoso Guillermo Pérez create a historical soundscape reawakening the organetto in the context of this vibrant time in our musical past.

DEMONSTRATION ORGAN RECITAL: Given by Simon Berry. Saturday, February 22, 7:30 pm, Church Nave. Join us for a festive recital to mark the formal opening of our new organ with our Director of Music & Liturgy, Simon Berry. All are welcome.
